The Bulls have received a boost ahead of their elimination semi final V the NQ Razorbacks on Saturday 28th August, with one of Australia's largest industry super funds, Austsafe Super coming on board to help the Bulls move forward to strong and stable future. Austafe's signing just days before one of the clubs biggest games in the clubs history, is big indication the club is continuing to move forward and with the continued investment from companies such as Austsafe, shows the club is moving in the right direction.

Club president Alex Srhoj, was ecstatic, after getting the news, "The opportunity to now, build a strong relationship with company of Austsafe's status, is a massive boost for the club, and it is perfect timing ahead of next weekend elimination semi final" Srhoj stated.

"The clubs ability to attract a corporate partner such as Austsafe, is a indication, the Bulls are charging in the right direction" Srhoj commented.

Together with Austsafe super, the Bulls focus will now be on the elimination semi final up against arch rivals the NQ Razorbacks on Saturday 28th august at Borzi Park, Mareeba.
